Headline:
Cloudier than recently, but still sunny and very warm.

Today:
Any early low cloud will soon break up through the morning, with another fine and sunny day following. Some fair-weather cloud will bubble up in the afternoon, and the risk of the odd sharp shower. Feeling hot in the south. Maximum temperature 29 deg C (84 deg F).

Tonight:
Skies clear through the evening, then remain so going overnight, allowing for some fog to form in prone areas. Another mild night, quite warm in places. Minimum temperature 13 deg C (55 deg F).

Tuesday:
Another fine and dry day, with plenty of sunshine and clear skies throughout. Feeling very warm, hot in places. Maximum temperature 30 deg C (86 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
Very warm to hot weather will continue through this period, with plenty of sunshine. However, a risk of showers, some heavy, developing each afternoon.
